SMITH'S FRIENDS ARE NOT DISTURBED

Do Not Believe He Can Be Connected With Southwestern Holdup.

Carriazo, N. M., June 16.—Few people believe the officers will be able to hold Matt Smith, arrested here yesterday for the purpose of being questioned by the officers in connection with the Southwestern holdup at Robert. He is still in custody at Alamogordo. Just what evidence the officers have as to his alleged guilt is not known here. It is rumored that he was picked out by a Pullman porter and by one of the passengers. Smith was playing pool the night of the robbery until quite late and there were three persons with him in the game. The last person with Smith that night was Percy Squires, who left the pool room with Smith. Squires says he thinks that the train had left the yards before he and Smith separated. Smith made friends easily and knew everybody in town after he had been here a week.

Smith's specialty here was amateur theatricals. He took the leading part in a home talent play that was pulled off here last month for the benefit of home missions. He was until arrested arranging for the presence of the musical comedy and had already received the play and music. Smith is about 27 years of age and has a divorced wife and two small children living in Los Angeles, Cal. Smith's friends to see that he has counsel at his hearing when it comes up and witnesses present to prove an alibi.

WATER STRUCK IN MILLS BASEMENT
Proved Later to Be Seepage From Abandoned Cess Pool.
Water was again struck in the basement of the Mills building yesterday morning. The basement was flooded with water from an old cess pool which had been built when the old Grand Central hotel occupied the site where the new Anson Mills building is to be.

It was built before the sewer age and when the sewer was laid, instead of passing the pipe through the cess pool, the sewer pipe was connected to the cess pool at each side, allowing the water to flow into the pool and out on the opposite side. The result was that when the contractors sank a pile it punctured the old cess pool and the basement was flooded until the water could be shut off. The sewer commissioner has ordered the pipe connected up through the pool.

EL PASO RUSHING CLOUDCROFT HOME
Charles B. Stevens has returned from Cloudcroft, where he has been building a cottage for his family. He went to the mountains with the determination of breaking all building records by finishing his cottage within a week from the time it started. SANDERSON FEARS SMALLPOX FROM SECTION MEN

Notified G. H. That Men Must Have Clean Bills of Health.

Sanderson, Texas, June 16.—Thirty of the Mexicans who were imported here by the railroad company, but who joined the strikers after they reached here, are said to have made affidavits that they crossed the Rio Grande near El Paso, evading the immigration inspection. They also declare that they are from the smallpox infected district. This has caused the citizens of this town to request the county health officer here to take some steps to stop the importation of these people.

After wiring the state health officer, Dr. S. B. Hudson was advised by him that a quarantine against El Paso under the contract of the immigration inspection. Hudson's health officer for Terrell county and he has notified the railroad officials that henceforth men they bring in here must produce clean bills of health, showing that they do not come from points where smallpox exists.

The diner on passenger train No. 10 was derailed at Castle Canyon, about 75 miles east of here, yesterday. The engine had slow orders for this place, and the fact that the train was only running about six miles per hour is probably all that averted a very serious wreck. All crews have had orders for the point where the accident occurred since shortly after the inauguration of the strike. The derailment delayed traffic about two hours.

MR. WAID SAYS ALL IS QUIET
G. H. Superintendent Declares That Strike Gives No Trouble.

Regarding the reported attempt to have Sanderson quarantined against El Paso on account of the Mexican labor being sent to that place to take the positions of the striking maintenance of way men on the G. H. superintendent G. S. Waid stated Thursday morning, according to advices received from that city, the attempt had fallen through. The reason for this, according to Mr. Waid, was that it was so obviously a blow at the railroad that the officials there would not consider it.

A report received from Sanderson Thursday morning stated that inspector Smith of the immigration service was at Sanderson investigating the charges that the road had been importing labor from Mexico. The superintendent stated that the company's skirts were absolutely clear of anything like that and that it was nothing to conceal. The Mexican laborers have employed, said the official, "has been obtained through agencies on the American side of the river."

The superintendent stated that he had reported to the general manager of the road that the situation on the El Paso division was very nearly normal. The one vacancy existing on the Valentine district was filled Wednesday afternoon and three existing vacancies on the Del Rio district will be filled Thursday, according to the superintendent, by men who are en route to that district today.

The railroad stationed at Sanderson have been removed.

"Everything is quiet," said Mr. Waid, "and I do not expect any further trouble."

SANTA FE TO BUILD GRADY-PECOS LINE?
Location Engineer of Road Over Proposed Route, 300 Miles.

Pecos, Tex., June 16.—The arrival of a party of men interested in the construction of a line of railroad from cities east of here into Pecos has aroused considerable interest here. The men, headed by the location engineer of the Santa Fe system, made the entire trip from Brady, by way of El Paso, to Pecos, a distance of 300 miles, in automobiles. The permanent location of this line has been made from Brady to El Paso, 100 miles, and the party is pushing westward.

The possibility of obtaining an easier grade from Pecos to a connection with the Santa Fe south from San Angelo, will, it is thought, cause the road to consider the route direct from Brady west, leaving San Angelo about 30 miles to the north.

The extension of the line now building from San Angelo north to La Mesa by way of Sterling City, Louisiana, making a connection with this proposed line, will be a great help to the Santa Fe. The Pecos valley, a Santa Fe property, running into Pecos City from the north, by way of Amarillo, Roswell and Carlsbad, is carrying but little money for its operators, but it would immediately become a dividend earning property, with a southern connection.

INSPECTION TRAIN ARRIVES OVER S. P. PROTECT TUCSON
A Southern Pacific special train of three private cars, the San Carlo, the Los Angeles, and the Berkeley, arrived in the city Wednesday evening carrying W. H. Whalen, superintendent of the Tucson division; H. V. Platt, general superintendent of the operating department of the S. P. and E. E. Calvin, general manager. The officials were met by a party of inspection and remained in the city only 20 minutes, returning to their headquarters in the west at 8:30.

INCREASE GRANTED TO SWITCHMEN ON KATY.
Denison, Texas, June 16.—Announcement is made here today by officials of the M. K. & T. railway that the wages of switchmen over the entire system are increased three cents an hour. This follows several concessions of a trainmen's committee and railroad officials held in Dallas. The increase was an addition of over $5000 to the monthly payroll.

ROADMASTERS ELECT.
Waco, Texas, June 16.—The Texas Roadmasters' association in session here today elected officers and selected Port Worth for the meeting place next year. The officers are E. T. O'Dowd, of Cleburne, president; R. F. Mosher, of Palestine, vice president; H. Hemkins, of Waco, secretary-treasurer.

LETTERS OF WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT FROM PROWMENT MEN MADE PUBLIC

New York, June 16.—The Outlook for June 18, contains the messages of welcome to Mr. Roosevelt sent by prominent men. President Taft's message was as follows:

The return of Mr. Roosevelt from Africa and Europe ought to arouse and will arouse as great a demonstration of welcome from his countrymen as any American ever received. After the long and arduous journey, the presidential office for nearly eight strenuous years, he sought rest by contrast in the depths of the African forests and in great physical exertion in the hunting of large game and the pursuit of various specimens of the fauna of the Dark Continent.

No one who knows Mr. Roosevelt, and no one who understands the character of the African climate and the kind of hunting in which he was engaged, can minimize the dangers from disease and actual combat with wild beasts to which he was exposed. It goes without saying that wherever there was danger to his life, he was in constant danger to observe and record its effect upon his own emotions. His trip to Africa was planned with the thoroughness of a military campaign and his plans were executed with the vim and energy that might be expected.

In view of what happened when he reached civilization, however, those of us who had the privilege of talking with him before he went can afford to have some fun at his expense in his frequently avowed determination to avoid all public functions and entertainments. He expected to call on the person in authority in each place which he visited, to have a long and intimate conversation with the ruler if he would receive him, and then go on his way like a private citizen, seeing the things of interest, and hurrying home. Instead of that, his path from the time he landed in Europe until he sailed for home, was a royal progress, and the courtesy and attention and profound respect shown him, not only by kings and the leading men of every country, but also by the people, have not been equalled in the history of the world.

This is the more remarkable because Grant had the deserved reputation of being a great military leader who had commanded millions of men and won a series of brilliant victories, and whose achievements, which have given him the standing before the world of a great military leader, were not of a nature to attract the attention of the world. The remarkable character of the reception that he has had in Europe shown the deep interest that his personality, his character, his aims, and his methods as a civil and social reformer have made upon the world at large. He was always, of course, a man of great breadth of vision and catholicity of view; but he comes back to us with a new experience, a new conviction, a new association, enriched by observation of that country of Europe from a point somewhat behind the scenes. With his notable power of quick acquisition of the circumstances of a situation, his close and more or less intimate association with the rulers of the leading countries of Europe and with their prominent statesmen has given him an insight into world politics that will make him still more valuable to his country as a statesman.

People's Welcome.
The people of this country will give him a welcome from their hearts, first, because of their affection for him, and the fact that he has returned to them safe and sound from a perilous expedition; second, because since he left them they have seen the people and the great men and the monarchs of other countries tender their profound respect to the same qualities in the man that his own people had previously noted and loved; and third, because of his personal touch, the sincerity and strength of his deliverance, he has increased the prestige of Americans throughout the world.

From the Governor of New York.
My Dear Col. Roosevelt:
On my own behalf and on behalf of your fellow citizens of the state of New York, whose cordial sentiment it gives me pleasure to express, I extend to you a most hearty welcome upon your return home.

The people of your native state, which nourished your strength and gave you to the nation for service of worldwide influence, take pride in the distinguished honors which you have received abroad as a fitting tribute to your representative and personal character, and join in wishing you the most abundant happiness and a long life enriched by continued usefulness and by the love and esteem which you know as division with respect to party, creed or race.

With assurance of my high regard, I am faithfully yours,
Charles E. Hughes.

From Mayor of New York City.
The people of the city of New York do well to welcome Mr. Roosevelt home. He is of them—bone of their bone, flesh of their flesh—and they have "a soft side" for him. Through his ancestry he is
